

COMING EVENTS

OCTOBER

3 TUESDAY

Lecture
Near Eastern

"Beauty and the Beast: Nefertiti and Akhenaten, the Ancient Egyptian Heretics". Prof. Donald B. Redford. ROM Theatre, 8.30 p.m. (Society for the Study of Egyptian Antiquities)

Seminar
Neuroscience

"A Study of Coagulation Welding and Suturing of Arteries". Dr. J. Robinson. Osler Hall, 5 p.m.

Colloquium
Thermodynamics

"Studies in Thermodynamics of Polymer Solutions". Dr. J. Pouchly, Head, Laboratory of Thermodynamics, Institute of Macromolecular Chemistry, Prague. 161 Lash Miller Chemical Laboratories. 4 p.m. (Chemistry)

4 WEDNESDAY

Films

NFB Shorts, "The Conquered Dream", Director, Richard Robinson. "Angus", Directors, Michael Scott and Andy Thomson. ROM Theatre, 7 p.m. Free.

5 THURSDAY

Discussion

Second "Under Attack" program. Room 3, Victoria College Academic Building. Doors close at 7.15 p.m. With Robert Guccione, owner, publisher, editor, cartoonist and photographer for Penthouse magazine; Dennis McDermott, vice-president and director for Canada of the United Auto Workers' Union; and the Hon. John Munro, Minister of the federal Department of Health and Welfare.

Lectures
War

"Modern Revolutionary War". Sir Robert Thompson, British soldier and public servant, Permanent Secretary for Defence of the Malay Federation during the Emergency of 1948-60, author. The first lecture in the Leonard Beaton Memorial Series. 3154 Medical Sciences Building, 8 p.m. (International Studies Program)

Physics

"Something Happens to <sup>3</sup>He at Low Temperatures - Superfluidity?" Dr. Robert C. Richardson, Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. 102 McLennan Physical Laboratories. 4.10 p.m. (SGS and Physics)

Seminar
Environment

"A Review of Work Undertaken by the Science Council of Canada Pertaining to the Environment". Dr. Dixon Thomson, Science Council of Canada. 211 Haultain Building. 4 p.m. (Environmental Sciences and Engineering)

6 FRIDAY

Seminar
Medicine

"Studies on Secretory Mechanisms of Exocrine Cells". Dr. James D. Jamieson, Rockefeller University, New York. 114 C. H. Best Institute. 4 p.m. (Banting and Best Department of Medical Research)

10 TUESDAY

Lecture
Macbeth

"Macbeth at Shakespeare's Globe". Ronald Watkins. Upper Library, Massey College. 4-6 p.m. (Drama Centre and Graduate School of English)

Seminar
Neuroscience

"Neurological Complications of Lymphomas". Prof. Henry Urich, Institute of Pathology, London Hospital Medical College, Whitechapel. 2172 Medical Sciences Building. 5 p.m.

11 WEDNESDAY

Readings

"In Person". Nelson Ball and David McFadden read their own works. ROM. 5.30 p.m. Free.

Films

NFB Shorts, "Evolution", Director, Michael Mills. "Octopus Hunt", Director, Bernard Devlin. "City Limits", Director, Laurence Hyde. "The Men In The Park", Director, George Geertsens. ROM Theatre, 7 p.m. Free.

12 THURSDAY

Lecture
Science

"Drug Manufacturing in the 19th Century". Prof. G. R. Patterson. 103 McLennan Physical Laboratories. 1.10 p.m. (IHPST and Varsity Fund)

Music

Thursday Evening Series. Entertainment for Elizabeth, A Renaissance Spectacle. MacMillan Theatre, Edward Johnson Building. 8.30 p.m. Tickets $4, students $2. Cheques payable Concerts, U of T. (Music)

13 FRIDAY

Supper

"Lobster Buffet Supper" (including other seafood). Reception 5.30-6 p.m. Buffet 6-8.30 p.m. Faculty Club.

16 MONDAY

Lecture
Slavic

"Apocalypse - V. V. Rozanov and D. H. Lawrence". Prof. Heinrich A. Stammer, University of Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, University of Kansas. 2118 Sidney Smith Hall. 4 p.m. (Slavic Languages and Literatures)

Open House

"Romarama" - The inside story of ROM. Meet the staff, tour study rooms and laboratories, enjoy arts, music and refreshments. Royal Ontario Museum. 8-11.30 p.m.

Forum Oct 10 on referendum about fees

The Office of the Vice-President and Provost has asked that all instructors allow time during class periods during the week of Oct. 2-6 for speakers representing the Students' Administrative Council to address students concerning the province-wide referendum on this year's rise in tuition fees and changes in the provincial student aid plan.

At noon on Oct. 10 there will be a forum in Convocation Hall at which speakers both for and against the fee increases and the referendum will be heard. All members of the University community, students and staff, are urged to attend this forum.

The questions on the referendum (to be held on Oct. 11 and 12), SAC explains, ask for an endorsement of the Ontario Federation of Students demands with reference to the fee increases and the changes in OSAP loan ceilings, an indication of support for a suggested strike against payment of second term fees, and a call for a strike in 1973-74 if any additional fee increases or detrimental loan charges are announced.

Exhibition in honour of Dr Healey Willan

An exhibition, Healey Willan - The Man and his Music, prepared by the National Library of Canada was officially opened yesterday in the Alumni Common Room, Second Floor, Medical Sciences Building. The exhibition will last until Dec. 3. Hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. weekdays; 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays, and 1 to 5 p.m. Sundays.

Dr. Willan was a well known Canadian composer, former professor of the Faculty of Music here, and University of Toronto organist.

Highlights of the Exhibition

To be seen are: original sketches and scores of many compositions, outlining Willan's development as a composer; pictures tracing the musician's life from infancy to his last months and recalling the places and people dear to him; a glimpse of his study where most of his composing was done (courtesy of George and Margaret Drynan); evidence of Willan's sense of merriment revealed in his social life and music; some of the diplomas and other honours awarded Willan over a period of 75 years.

Willan to be heard: a variety of Willan's recorded compositions; the composer talking about his life and works (courtesy of Rev. Max Parker); Willan the organist and choir director.

The exhibition is under the auspices of the Faculty of Music, the U of T Medical Alumni and Broadcast Music Incorporated (BMI) Canada Limited.

Court hearings begin on charges arising from Simcoe Hall sit-in

Summary hearing of charges against Mark Goldblatt of assaulting police and interfering with police in the execution of their duty, arising from the occupation by students and others of Simcoe Hall last March, has begun before Provincial Judge Charles Drukarsh.

After testimony had been heard on Sept. 25, 26 and 27, the trial was adjourned until Nov. 13. A date was not set for the hearing of a charge of assaulting police against Miss Randi Reynolds, who, throughout last week's proceedings, sat beside her legal counsel, Austin Cooper, who was appearing for Mr. Goldblatt.

Judge Drukarsh fixed Oct. 4 as the date for a start on the hearing of charges against William Getty of assaulting police and Thomas McLaughlin of obstructing police in the performance of their duty.

Most of the evidence heard at the first three days of the trial concerned the nature of the instructions given by Dr. John H. Sword on the morning of Sunday, March 12, when he was Acting President, for the clearing of the occupants from Simcoe Hall by University and Metropolitan Toronto police and the understanding of these instructions by the University's senior security officers.

Dr. Sword told the court that students and others occupied the Senate chamber and other parts of Simcoe Hall immediately after a meeting of the Senate on the evening of March 10 when a decision was taken concerning access to the stacks of the John P. Robarts Library. There had been "a difference of opinion" on this issue, Dr. Sword said.

Evidence as to the nature of the instructions given for the police action that ended the occupation on the morning of Sunday, March 12, was given by Dr. Sword; by James F. Westhead, then Safety and Security Officer (now manager of the Environmental Hazard Control, Communications and Security Division in the Physical Plant Department), by Gordon Huff, Chief Security Officer, to whom Mr. Westhead passed the instructions; Inspector David Sproule, in charge of the 30 Metropolitan Toronto police who aided 25 University officers in clearing Simcoe Hall, who also was advised by Mr. Westhead, and by Mrs. Teresa Falconi, secretary in the Communications office, and Miss Joanne Pugh, policewoman on the U of T force, who listened on extension telephones to the conversation between the Acting President and Mr. Westhead and took notes at that time of the instructions given.

Detective James Brown, Metropolitan Toronto police photographer, submitted in evidence pictures he took of the scene in the Senate chamber and nearby rooms immediately after the eviction action and of those arrested (18 in all - only four are now defendants as all charges of trespassing were later withdrawn) as they were ushered into a police van outside Simcoe Hall.

Mr. Cooper showed Detective Brown photographs taken by Frank Rooney, a Varsity photographer, which showed Randi Reynolds with her sweater up around her neck and the lower part of her body exposed. Detective Brown said he had not seen this, because, although the picture had been taken outside the hall, he was at the patrol wagon taking photographs for identification purposes.

The University completes sale of Connaught Labs to the CDC

The sale by the University of Toronto of Connaught Medical Research Laboratories to the Canada Development Corporation was completed at 7 p.m. last Friday at a price of approximately $26,000,000.

H. A. Hampson, Chairman of the C.D.C. stated "We are proud to be associated with Connaught and have every intention of expanding its presence and effectiveness in the field of health care, not only in Canada but in other countries. Our goal is to enhance its reputation in research and production and to offer the public the highest in quality with the lowest possible cost".

The laboratories will be owned and operated by Connaught Laboratories Limited, a new Ontario subsidiary of the C.D.C. Directors of the new company are:

Dr. Robert J. Wilson, Chairman of the Board;

H. Anthony Hampson, Vice-Chairman of the Board and of the Executive Committee and Chairman of C.D.C. Ottawa;

Donald B. McCaskill, President and Chairman of the Executive Committee;

Marshall A. Crowe, President of C.D.C. Ottawa;

Douglas H. Fullerton, Chairman of the National Capital Commission, Ottawa;

Dr. John Hamilton, Vice-Provost, University of Toronto;

Douglas N. Kendall, Chairman of Kenting Limited;

Douglas A. Kimpel, President, K-Vet Limited, Hespeler;

Allan F. Waters, President of CHUM Limited.

Connaught Laboratories is a manufacturer and distributor of biological products for human, veterinary and laboratory use and has an international reputation for excellence.

The agreement between C.D.C. and the University requires C.D.C. to continue the historic role of Connaught as a researcher and to continue to offer for sale to the public health authorities in Canada at reasonable and competitive prices, insulin, vaccines and such other medical products as it now produces or may develop. C.D.C. has also undertaken that Connaught will always remain under the control of Canadians.

Mr. Hampson and A. G. Rankin, U of T Vice-President, Business Affairs, stressed that there will be a continuing relationship between Connaught and the University by virtue of cross-appointments of staff and collaboration in research and product development.

Academic Staff Opening

Applications are invited for possible openings at junior and/or senior levels in Economics

Applicants who are graduates of a school of business are particularly sought. Specialist in Canadian Economic History also an asset.

Please send curriculum vitae indicating areas of special interest to: Office of the Chairman, Division of Social Sciences, Scarborough College, 1285 Military Trail, West Hill, Ont.

Miss Harman elected Vice-Pres of AAUP

Eleanor T. Harman, Associate Director of the University of Toronto Press, was elected Vice-President of the Association of American University Presses at its annual meeting in South Bend, Ind. Miss Harman is the first Canadian woman to hold this position. She is the author and editor of several books including Canada in North America and The University as Publisher and has been editor of UTP's Press Notes from 1959-69 and editor of the international journal, Scholarly Publishing since its inception in 1969.

The Association of American University Presses is an organization consisting of over seventy member presses from the United States and Canada and seven international members. Its services include advice and assistance to member presses, professional handbooks covering vital areas of university press publishing, education and training programs, and liaison with other publishers in North America and abroad. University of Toronto Press is one of the five largest members. Director Marsh Jeanneret served as its President in 1970, and a number of Press staff have served as members or chairmen of AAUP committees.

Charges for use of U of T computers

The Office of Research Administration has announced that the Presidential Advisory Committee on Computer Policy and Planning has made the following recommendations with respect to charges for research use of University computers:

For all grants or contracts, except those from the National Research Council, Medical Research Council, and Canada Council, resulting from applications submitted after July 1st, 1972, there will be no subsidy. It is recommended that the subsidy for such grants from the National Research Council, Medical Research Council, and Canada Council be 70%. It is expected that the prices of the various computer services will remain substantially as at present. The following guidelines should be used in preparing any application submitted after June 30th, 1972:

1. Full estimated cost should be applied for based on existing schedules.

2. Overhead, at the rate of 30% of the direct computer costs asked, should be requested on all applications where overhead is obtainable.